CIRCLE TIME with BRIAN COOK

Brian Ransome Cook is a singer and the performer of "Songs for Kids", a fun and interactive sing-along for families with children aged 3 to 8. Brian's songs are easy to sing along with.

He has written music for radio, television, and film, and has recorded several albums of solo guitar music as a professional musician since the '70s. First writing songs for his own children when they were young, Brian now performs his music regularly at Family Centres and special events, for other children and families to enjoy.
